Battery Investment Readiness Programme 2025

By returning a signed form, either electronically or printed and scanned, you acknowledge acceptance of the terms and conditions of participation in this free programme, including;

- By applying for this competitive programme, you endeavour to participate fully in the workshops to maximise the benefit from the training and coaching services on offer. If selected, you must present your final pitch, in person in London, and you accept that the decision on selection is final.
- Innovate UK Business Connect reserves the right to modify the programme or cancel if the unlikely need arises.
- You agree to Innovate UK Business Connect using your company profile in any social media or promotion pre and post the event. Please complete the profile within the checklist below, in a way it can be best used to attract further investors to attend the Showcase.
- You will inform Innovate UK Business Connect of any progress with investors made as a result of this programme. At a suitable time, and with all participants' acknowledgment and consent, Innovate UK Business Connect will be able, if desired, to produce a case study on the subsequent interactions.
- All information presented during the training sessions should be kept in confidence. We strongly recommend that you do not share confidential information unless you feel comfortable doing so.
- Innovate UK Business Connect are providing training and an opportunity to pitch to an audience of invited investors and we cannot guarantee any further interaction or investment with any investors following the event.
- Where specified, attendance to in-person workshops is mandatory and sufficient notice must be provided to us if you cannot attend. Innovate UK Business Connect will reimburse reasonable travel costs to London for up to 2 in-person workshops. If selected, no reimbursement is provided for presenting at the final Investor Showcase. Public transport to be taken where possible and claims are to be submitted no later than 30 days after the workshop.

We will remain in contact with all parties, in case further facilitation or support is required.

Checklist to be completed:

- I confirm that I will be available to attend the Investor Showcase if selected to do so.
- Send a short Company biography (100 words max) and your company logo, for promotion to investors and to promote your involvement in the Programme.

Please indicate your acceptance of these terms by signing and returning a copy of the letter and checklist to neelam.mughal@iukbc.org.uk
